*The Special Olympics Coordinator is not the same as the Torch Run Coordinator. Most local Special Olympics programs are organized at the county level and each program has a coordinator in charge of all the training and competitions in their county. It is not mandatory for you to notify your local Special Olympics coordinator however, they would appreciate it. They can also provide you with athletes at your event if you give them enough notice. A director of Special Olympics coordinators can be found on the SONC website at www.SONC.net.

Please describe the event in as much detail as possible:
